

BLACK TIE BOOTH

Email Templates · Revenue Outreach

Two outreach campaigns designed to convert cold leads and unlock corporate holiday bookings. Personalize each email before sending — these are templates, not mass blasts.

PART 1 — COLD LEAD REACTIVATION

WHO TO SEND THIS TO: Anyone who inquired, got a quote, or had a consultation but never booked. Send personally — not as a mass blast. Use their first name and reference their wedding date if you have it. That one detail dramatically increases open and reply rates.

EMAIL Email 1 of 2 — First Touch

SEND July or August — any time you have open dates on their wedding weekend

SUBJECT Still thinking about it, [First Name]?

Hi [First Name],

I hope your planning is going beautifully. I wanted to reach out personally because I still have your wedding date in mind — and I'd love for Black Tie Booth to be part of it.

I know things can get busy, and sometimes the decision just gets pushed back. No pressure at all. But if you're still looking for a photo booth experience, I wanted to let you know we still have [their date] available and I'd love to hold it for you.

A few things that might have changed since we last spoke:

- We've added Keychains as a take-home keepsake option (starting at $399 for 50 guests)
- Our 360 Video Booth is fully booked most fall weekends — but your date is still open
- We're running a referral credit program — if you book and refer a friend, you'll receive $50 off

If [their date] is still your date, reply to this email and I'll send over a fresh quote. If plans have changed, no worries at all — I wish you nothing but the best.

Warmly,

The Black Tie Booth Team

If no reply after 5–7 days — send this follow-up:

EMAIL	Email 2 of 2 — Soft Close
SEND	5–7 days after Email 1
SUBJECT	Last note from me — [First Name]

Hi [First Name],

I sent a note last week and didn't want to let too much time pass before following up one last time.

I know wedding planning has a thousand moving parts, and I completely understand if the timing isn't right or if you've gone a different direction. Either way — congratulations on your upcoming wedding. It's going to be a beautiful day.

If you haven't locked in a photo booth experience yet and [their date] is still available on our end, I'd love to make it work for you. Just reply and we'll pick up right where we left off.

If not — I hope your day is everything you've dreamed of. And if you know anyone planning a wedding, we'd love a referral. ■

Warmly,

The Black Tie Booth Team

AFTER 2 EMAILS WITH NO REPLY: Move them to a future nurture list. Don't send a third email. If they re-engage later — likes your posts, opens an email — reach out personally at that moment. That's your signal.

PART 2 — CORPORATE HOLIDAY PITCH

Also target event planning companies that produce corporate galas, award nights, and product launches. START OUTREACH IN SEPTEMBER — corporate holiday events are planned 6–8 weeks out. October is peak booking window.

SUBJECT	Make your holiday party the one everyone talks about

Hi [First Name],

I hope your fall is off to a great start. I'm reaching out because holiday party season is right around the corner — and I think Black Tie Booth could make [Company Name]'s event one your team genuinely looks forward to all year.

We provide luxury photo booth experiences for corporate events across the Atlanta area. Whether you're hosting an intimate team dinner or a full-scale gala, we have options that fit any size and budget:

- 360 Video Booth — cinematic slow-motion clips your team will share instantly
- Classic Drop-Off Booth — all-day rental with no attendant required, perfect for offices
- LED Video Wall — custom branded visuals that transform your event space
- Mirror Booth — interactive, elegant, and always a crowd favorite

Everything we do is branded to your event, professionally set up and broken down, and designed to feel like a premium experience — not an afterthought.

We have a few dates left in November and December, but they're filling quickly as companies finalize their holiday plans.

Would you have 10 minutes for a quick call this week? I'd love to learn more about your event and put together a custom quote.

Warmly,
The Black Tie Booth Team

If no reply after 5 days — send this LinkedIn DM:

EMAIL LinkedIn Follow-Up DM

SEND 5 days after the initial email

SUBJECT (No subject line — sent as a LinkedIn direct message)

Hi [First Name] — I sent an email last week about photo booth options for your holiday event and wanted to follow up here in case it got lost in the inbox.

We're one of Atlanta's top-rated luxury photo booth companies and we're booking corporate events through December. Happy to send over a quick overview or jump on a 10-minute call at your convenience.

Either way — hope the holiday planning is going smoothly! ■

PRO TIP: When quoting corporate clients, always lead with the 360 Booth or Mirror Booth. Corporate budgets are typically higher than wedding budgets and clients appreciate the premium feel. Include the Video Wall as an add-on option. A single corporate booking can easily reach $1,500–$2,000+ with one add-on — and corporate clients often rebook year after year.
